Game review:

Call of Duty, Cold War

By [REDACTED]

I play this game called Call of Duty Black Ops Cold War or Cod BOCW (it's an acronym for Call of Duty Black Ops Cold War) I play the zombies mode most of the time because it's more fun.

Here is a tip if you want a gun loadout. First equip a gun you want then do the mystery box twice drop your first weapon get a friend to grab your first weapon get a zombie to kill you, respawn with your second weapon get your friend to do the mystery box once to drop your first weapon and pick it up and you have a gun loadout.

In the zombie's mode the main story is where you find these parts to build this gun called a D.I.E Machine. You must kill zombies to power it up and when you power it up you get to shoot an element. You can get mutant zombies to go under this tube then you will rotate through elements till you get to the last element where you have the choice to do the ending or do an easter egg.

ANIMAL FRIENDS

My Cat Flash

By [REDACTED]

Flash is an orange striped cat. He loves to sleep, scratch people and hide. Flash hates kids but I still love him. I wonder what Flash did when I was at preschool. Maybe Flash had cat parties or maybe he goes to see my Neighbours or maybe he goes to a secret cat park or maybe watches tv. I think my cat liked to be alone because when I got home my cat would go to a high place like the cupboard.

Screech screamed the bugie birds as Flash tried to eat the bugie birds. My bugies were safe because the cage was safe so the cat could not get the birds.

A stick sticking out of the cage my cat was standing on the stick and then I woke up and the bugie birds screaming screech was all I heard so I ran down the stairs and I saw my cat trying to get the bugie birds so I ran back up stairs tried to wake up my parents but they would not wake up so. Then I tried to pick up my cat but I got scratched it hurt bad.

Once I was in the bath and I was three and my cat was curious and then my cat went on the ledge of the bath. The ledge got smaller and smaller and then Flash fell then he jumped out of the bath and then Flash knocked down my Ruber ducks and Flash was soaking wet!

When I had to give Flash away. Flash had to go away because my brother was going to be born and my dad was scared so my dad gave my cat to my aunt and she gave my cat to her friend who lives in NYC. Three years later my mom told me Flash died.

Adventures of Lady Maleficent

By [REDACTED]

Maleficent is my cat. She is a one-year-old black cat and she loves getting brushed. She is really fancy and dainty but also very naughty.

Maleficent is an indoor cat. She loves looking outside at the birds. I think she likes their feathers and the way they move in the air. She likes to nap after every meal. She enjoys getting her beauty sleep.

Maleficent is very active and she gets into all sorts of trouble. She once peed on our houseplant named Sideshow Bob. She peed in the litter box while I was cleaning it. Another time, she climbed on the fridge and pushed everything to the ground, boxes and boxes full of stuff. When she hears a noise, she runs around and around the house.

Maleficent has a good appetite. She eats my hair when I'm sleeping. She loves it when I wave noodles in front of her face. I sometimes give her my meat. I once gave her my vanilla ice cream. She never turns down food!

My cat knows how to high five. I am teaching her how to sit she is good Ish So that's her life.

NEVER HAVE I EVER...

Been betrayed on social media

By [REDACTED]

You should always be careful when you're on social media. I never thought this would happen to me, but it did, and it was a close friend who betrayed me.

It was a Monday afternoon when I went to the barber shop to get a haircut and I was very excited because I had a specific haircut in mind. My mom showed the barber a picture of the haircut that I wanted. The barber said ok and then gave me a cut that was not what I asked for! She cut my hair way too short. I was so annoyed.

When I got home my first thought was to video call my best friend to show him because I did not like the haircut. I would only show him.

I video called him. He answered and by the time he did I had my hoodie on and told him I had got a haircut. Once I took my hoodie down, he was surprised and told me to show him again because I put my hoodie right back on. So, I did it because he was one of my best friends. The moment that I took my hood down he took a screenshot and sent it to everybody he knew at our school.

The next day at school, everybody was trying to pull my hood down just so they could see the haircut. And I did not know what to do, I felt betrayed. I also felt disappointed in my friend.

Advice for the reader:

*Don't do what I did and be careful.
Remember, don't trust anybody!*

Almost drowned at camp

By [REDACTED]

One day in summer 2020 I went to camp at summer land on the Okanagan Lake. Near the camp site there is a river called the channel. So my campsite and I went to get some floaties to float down the stream. when I went down the stream I got off my tube and I held on my Auntie's tube. But I wasn't wearing a life jacket and I almost got sucked under the water! My auntie grabbed me and saved me from drowning.

CREATIVE WRITING

The Fair

By [REDACTED]

One spring day around my birthday my aunt brother family friends and I went to the fair one my favorite rides was the one that went up slowly and dropped down fast it was. Really scary I went on it 3 or 2 times and the other one that spins really fast it was called the alien ship it was fun we also had cotton candy and I saw my friend there her name was Layla, and we went on the ride together and it was funny to hear my brother scream. We had ice cream too. It was delicious and hotdogs.

Noise at my house

By [REDACTED]

My house is very noisy.

One of the noises is my Neighbours because when I got to bed, they come home and stomp on the stairs and slam the doors and they do the laundry at night and my Neighbours argue all night.

Another noise is the fire trucks pass by and Ambulance and big trucks and a lot of noisy cars.

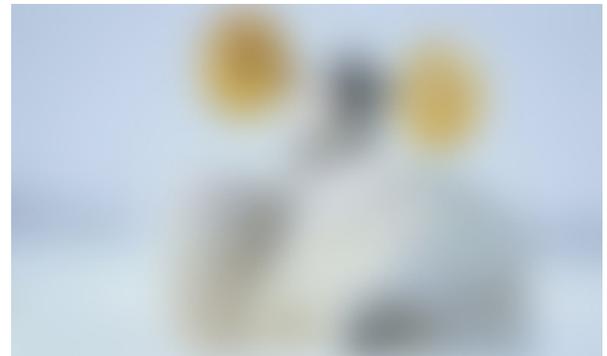

Another annoying thing is the fish store smells so bad! It smells like dead fish and crab and they pour out dirty fishy water into the sidewalk.

But there are three good things about my neighborhood. There is a Tim Horton's and Starbucks and London Drugs.

Penguin with cymbals

By [REDACTED]

Thar was a Polar bear that was hungry he saw line of Penguin. the Penguin saw him too. The Penguin were scared and they slid down on their belly's one of the Penguins got stuck on a crack on the ice the Polar bear saw the Penguin the Polar bear was going to kill the Penguin but Polar bear felt bad so he wanted to be friends so. the next day morning the Penguin found two cymbals in the water he saw the Poler Bear to he woke him up by the cymbals.
